Fighting for Freedom

If you have to Fight for Freedom, you'll be in Good Company

The latest Good Fellow to Stand against Tyranny is Alexei Navalny. His current effort reminds me of the struggle of Lech Wałęsa. Lech Wałęsa led his Solidarity movement and secured Freedom from Communism in Poland. Through selfless service Lech freed the people of Poland and moved from an enemy of the state to a Nobel Peace prize,....

And that brings me to thoughts of another selfless Fighter for Freedom: Nelson Mandela. Through selfless service Nelson Mandela freed South Africa from the Tyranny and Oppression of Apartheid.

Such thoughts bring us naturally to one of the greatest men to participate in the Struggle for Freedom: Mahatma Gandhi. Gandhi is world renown for his non-violent philosophy and respected for guiding India to freedom from British rule.

These great men share this in common: They were persecuted for their efforts, arrested, and jailed. And later admired for bringing Truth to We, the People

Dr. King:

"I look to a day when people will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character." ~From the "I have a dream" speech

I've mentioned some legendary figures. There are many more.

We must oppose tyranny or oppression will result.

If you seek peace work for justice (Pope John Paul VI)

Tyranny is the arbitrary or un-restricted use of power. Justice is counter to tyranny. Justice asserts that the rules shall apply equally to all; there shall not be a privileged class.

Oppression exists when a privileged or ruling class is able to effect extortion against the common people.

Communist states are characterized by a privileged and ruling class known as the communist party. Members of the communist party live large while the common folks suffer.

Oppression should be recognized when the Freedom of Speech, and the Freedom to Assembly -- are suppressed; Education is distorted; dissonance is not allowed. Surveillance is employed against the People in order to identify and neutralize dissent. Improper enforcement of the common law facilitates hidden agendas and tyranny.
